The December meeting was held at Scotto & Crimani's Restaurant (Dover Park Plaza, 15 Sunnybrae Blvd, Yardville, NJ). Sixteen club members and one guest (now our newest member) attended the club meeting. The Mid-Jersey Region of the AACA welcomes Our newest member, Jake Wig.

President Jim Spence called the meeting to order at 7:10 pm.

Treasurer's Report: The treasurer's report was presented by John Tiene.

November's Meeting Minutes: Secretary Doug Watt presented highlights of the November's Meeting, as recorded by John Tiene. Joe Weldon made a motion to accept the minutes as read, which was seconded by Earl Groendyke.

Old Business

Club Dues and a nominal fee to offset costs for our pizza night were collected.

Registration forms for the Installation Dinner were distributed to the members at the meeting.

Members are to mail the completed dinner forms by Monday, January 9th. For members that were not able to attend the December Meeting, the form is included at the end of the meeting minutes.

Scholarship Report

A brief scholarship report was presented at the December meeting. A summary of the rating of the applicants to the judging criteria was presented. The application rating of a specific applicant was requested and discussed. Doug nominated two applicants for the two $1000. Scholarships. A motion to award the club's scholarships was presented and unanimously accepted by the members presented at the meeting.

All Club members were invited to attend this year's Scholarship Awards Ceremony at the Automotive Training Center on December 15, 2016 at 10:30 am.
