President: Jameson Spence
Vice President: Jimmy Spence Treasurer: Bruce Bird
Secretary: Doug Watt Director, 1-Year: Earl Groendyke
Director, 2-Year: Justin Segal Director, 3-Year: Greg Falco
Membership Committee Chairman: Ray Bouchard
Events Coordinator: John Tiene

The October 9th meeting was held at the Crosswicks Community House. Vice President, Jimmy Spence, called the meeting to order at 7 pm. There were 13 members in attendance.

September Minutes: There was no reading of the September Minutes because Secretary, Doug Watt, was not able to attend the meeting.

Treasurer's Report: Treasurer Bruce Bird gave the Treasurer's Report.

Old Business:

The Scholarship Awards Ceremony is scheduled at the Automotive Training Center in Warminster, PA on December 1, 2017. Plan to arrive by 10:15 as the Ceremony will begin at 10:30.

Bruce Bird has set up the reservation for Pizza Night at Scotto Crimani. This restaurant is located in the Dover Plaza in Yardville.

Allentown Harvest Fest is scheduled for October 14, 2017. Park at Main & High Streets near the Youth Club. Arrive at 9:30 to set up for the 10:00 am start. This is a paid event.

New Business:

John Tiene will research a location for the Installation Dinner. It is scheduled for January 21, 2017. This dinner has always been heavily subsidized by the club. That practice cannot continue due to the lower amount in our Treasury. After John reports back on the actual cost, the club will determine the final cost to the membership.

Carl Christiansen gave the "Hershey Report" after spending 3 days there and taking in the Flea Market, Auction and Car Show.

As a proposed event for 2018, Kevin Wright brought up doing a wine tasting at the Working Dog Winery. It would cost $5 per person for 5 tastes and they have an area where we could park our cars together. The winery is located on Old York road in Windsor (near Hightstown).

The meeting adjourned at 7:31 pm. Kevin Wright made motion to adjourn, seconded by Greg Falco.
